The auspicious festival of Ganesh Chaturthi was celebrated with great enthusiasm and devotion on 27th August at Samarpan Education and Research Campus. The celebration began with the Ganesh Sthapana ritual, where a beautifully decorated idol of Lord Ganesha was installed and worshipped with traditional mantras and offerings.

The event was marked by vibrant decorations, devotional songs, and prayers. Participants enthusiastically performed aarti and offered sweets. Cultural programs such as dance, bhajans, and skits depicting the life and teachings of Lord Ganesha were also organized.

The ritual of Ganpati Visarjan took place on 29th August where students of Samarpan Education and Research Campus enthusiastically participated with pomp, dance, music, and devotion.
