

SAMARPAN SCIENCE AND COMMERCE COLLEGE

Group Day

On 12th February 2026, along with the Sports Day celebrations, Samarpan Science and Commerce College also celebrated Group Day in the college premises with great enthusiasm and active participation from students.

On this occasion, students showcased their unity and coordination by dressing in matching and creative group attire, reflecting strong team spirit and mutual understanding.

Faculty members also actively participated by wearing coordinated outfits, which further enhanced the spirit of togetherness and encouraged student involvement. The combined celebration added vibrancy and positive energy to the campus and was conducted smoothly under the guidance and cooperation of all staff members.
